

No. 111

Claim No. 14.

Under Article 11. Treaty of 14th June 1866
with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Ned Robbins, a Freedman of the Creek Nation, ^{aged 35.} a Refugee, and prior to the war of the Rebellion, a Slave belonging to Hunter, an Indian of the Creek Nation, being duly examined and sworn (he understanding and conversing in the English language.) deposes and says: that some time in the month of July 1863, whilst he was living on his place, about twenty five miles west of North Fork Town, in the Creek Nation, he was necessarily compelled to flee from his home in the night time by the Rebel troops under the command of Colonel Cooper, and to abandon his property. And this deponent further says that, at the time he so fled, he owned and possessed the articles of property below stated,
and that the same were abandoned and lost,
and that he has not since recovered any part thereof - to say:

1 One large American Horse	Valued at	$ 150.00.
1 One Horse (Indian)	" "	50.00.
35 Thirty five Hogs.	" "	280.00.

175. One hundred & Seventy five Bushels Corn @ $1.	175.00
---	--------

Making a total value of $ 655.00 Six Hundred and fifty five dollars. And further this deponent says not.)

Award.

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony; Also the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however, is considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found that the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred ruled as follows:—

Horses - American,	$50.00 Each.
Horses - Indian,	15.00 ..
Hogs -	2.00 ..
Corn - per bushel,	50 ..

In consideration of these, and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant, Ned Robbins - Two hundred and twenty two dollars and fifty cents.

\$222 $\frac{50}{100}$
